A Worth-While Shoe at a Worth-While Price

To acquire a shoe that is stylish is one thing. To obtain a shoe that is both smart and comfortable at the same time-that is quite a problem. And here is the solution.

The Bannockburn

is a graceful model, constructed of durable calfskin. The colors are black and a dark, rich brown. The soles are Goodyear welted and stitched. The heels are pegged—like those of fine, custom-made shoes. This shoe comes in various widths, but no matter how wide a model you require, the long, slender and graceful lines of the shoe are retained.

The price is low. $4.96 per pair.

you should know that an efficient organization proved this fact to our satisfaction before the fact became a matter of printer's ink and paper. We have told you before and will repeat from time to time the interesting details of our Comparison Department which proves and analyzes our buying judgment.

§ Buying for cash, as is the habit in Macy's, is a clarion call to the vendors of the world who place a premium on cash as a commodity. They bring their wares and crafts to Macy's first because there is no delay in payment.

Macy's policy of selling for cash is, to our mind, the fairest and most economical method of purveying merchandise. You are not asked to pay the cost of maintaining a credit or charge department when you purchase goods at Macy's. The cost of your purchase here is the "Lowest-in-the-City" be
